

RULES AND REGULATIONS
OF THE OPERA ACADEMY YOUNG TALENTS
DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMME
OF THE TEATR WIELKI – POLISH NATIONAL OPERA
PIANISTS

§ 1

THE OPERA ACADEMY

The Opera Academy Young Talent Development Programme (hereinafter: 'Opera Academy', 'Programme') of the Teatr Wielki – Polish National Opera aims to support the professional development of talented young opera artists, and is dedicated to young opera singers as well as pianists who specialise in accompanying opera singers and wish to become professional opera répétiteurs.

The Opera Academy forms a bridge between education and professional career for exceptionally talented young artists by providing them with an opportunity to further develop skills under the guidance of singing teachers and opera artists.

Members of the Opera Academy are offered:

- regular workshops and master classes,
- individual piano and language coaching sessions,
- ongoing professional support,
- opportunities to make contacts and establish their presence in the music community in Poland and abroad,
- opportunities to participate in concerts held at the Teatr Wielki – Polish National Opera and elsewhere in Poland and abroad,
- opportunities to participate in Opera Academy stage productions,
- a chance to be employed by the Polish National Opera.
