

THE SARS-COV-2 SAFETY MEASURES FOR AUDIENCE MEMBERS IN PLACE AT THE POLISH NATIONAL OPERA, TEATR WIELKI, WARSAW

§ 1

General Provisions

1. These SARS-CoV-2 Safety Measures for Audience Members (hereinafter: Safety Measures) set out the safety measures to be taken by the members of the public attending cultural events, including opera and ballet performances, concerts, educational projects and workshops (hereinafter: Events) held at the Polish National Opera, Teatr Wielki, Warsaw (hereinafter: Theatre).
2. These Safety Measures implement the regulations on certain restrictions, mandates and prohibitions associated with the SARS-CoV-2 epidemic in Poland available on the websites of the Polish Ministry of Culture and National Heritage (www.gov.pl).

Safety Measures for Audience Members

1. Every audience member must abide by these Safety Measures and the Guidelines mentioned in §1(2) above. Those who fail to do so may be refused entry to the Event or asked to leave by the Theatre's staff, in which case they will be unable to claim a refund.
2. The Safety Measures apply to all audience members, regardless if they bought their ticket themselves or received it from a third person.
3. An audience member who bought their ticket having read the Safety Measures is understood to accept them and agree to be bound by them.
4. An audience member who bought their ticket before the Safety Measures had taken effect is obligated to acquaint themselves with the Safety Measures before attending the Event.
5. The Safety Measures are available on [www.butik.teatr Wielki.pl](http://www.butik.teatr Wielki.pl) and displayed in the Theatre's lobby.
6. Tickets to the Theatre are offered to the public in line with the existing legal provisions, including any restrictions on artistic activity involving communal forms of culture and entertainment during the state of epidemic threat or the state of epidemic.
7. In connection to the restrictions mentioned in (6) above, the Theatre may temporarily or permanently introduce a new type of ticket: "ticket for a Covid certificate holder".
8. An audience member who holds a ticket described in (7) above will be admitted to the Event only if on arriving to the Theatre they present to the audience services staff their ticket along with their EU digital Covid certificate or certificate of Covid vaccination, certificate of negative Covid test, or certificate of recovery from Covid considered interoperable based on Regulation (EU) 2021/953 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 14 June 2021 on a framework for the issuance, verification and acceptance of interoperable COVID-19 vaccination, test and recovery certificates (EU Digital COVID Certificate) to facilitate free movement during the COVID-19 pandemic.

9. A person who fails to present at least one of the certificates listed in (8) above will be refused entry and will not be eligible for a refund.

§ 3

1. Audience members must comply with all the regulations in place at the Theatre, in particular as regards moving around the Theatre, practicing social distancing and ensuring safety during the Event, according to the advice of the Theatre staff.
2. Only those audience members who to the best of their knowledge are not infected with the SARS-CoV-2 virus and/or are not under quarantine or epidemiological supervision will be admitted to Events.
3. Before entering the Theatre, every audience member must submit a written health declaration (see Exhibit 1 herein) confirming that to the best of their knowledge they are not under quarantine or isolation.
4. Audience members intending to attend an opera or ballet performance, or a concert may submit their health declaration online via [www.butik.teatr Wielki.pl](http://www.butik.teatr Wielki.pl). The online declaration cannot be submitted earlier than 48 hours before the curtain-up. The Theatre staff will check whether you have submitted the online self-declaration before admitting you to the Theatre.
5. Audience members intending to attend Events other than those listed in §3(4) above must submit their health declarations to the Theatre staff in person before entering the Event.
6. If you fail to meet the obligations set out in §3(1) above or refuse to submit your health declaration, you will be refused entry to the Event and you will not receive a refund.
7. In the event of potential exposure to SARS-CoV-2, the information supplied in the health declaration will be used to contact the audience members affected. The Theatre will also disclose the information to the relevant epidemiological services.
8. The health declarations will be stored by the Theatre for two weeks of the date of the Event.

§ 4

1. Audience members must cover their mouth and nose using a face mask.
2. Audience members are expected to obtain face masks at their own cost.
3. Audience members must abide by the relevant regulations in place at the Theatre and the Theatre staff's advice, including public announcements, while on the Theatre's premises, as well as when entering the Theatre premises or the auditorium, when taking seats in the auditorium, and when leaving the auditorium and the Theatre. You must keep space of at least 1.5 meters between yourself and other persons, including when using the cloakrooms and bars. A maximum of two people may use a lift at the same time.

4. Audience members must sanitise their hands with hand sanitiser provided by the Theatre, in particular when entering the Theatre premises and the auditorium, or when leaving these places.

§ 5

1. The procedure of admitting audience members to opera and ballet performances, concerts and educational events starts an hour before the start of an Event to be held at the Moniuszko Auditorium and 30 minutes before the start of an Event to be held at the Młynarski Hall or Redutowe Rooms, and ends 5 minutes before the start of the Event.
2. Latecomers will not be admitted and their tickets will not be refunded.

§ 6

1. Seating is limited and arranged in line with the existing legal provisions (including guidelines) issued by the state authorities and the Chief Sanitary Inspector and introducing restrictions, mandates and prohibitions associated with the state of epidemic in Poland with respect to artistic activity involving communal forms of culture and entertainment.
2. Audience members must accept the rules governing the organisation of the Event, including the seating organisation.
3. Audience members are required to take the seat displayed on their ticket or indicated by the Theatre staff, and must not change their seat without consulting the staff first.

§ 7

1. It is preferable that audience members show their e-tickets to the Theatre staff on their mobile phones instead of their printouts.
2. Cash payments should be avoided if possible.
